

50th CATHOLIC CHARISMATIC CONVENTION

At Holy Redeemer Parish Hall
Begins FRIDAY, Nov. 13th, 2026
with Registration 5:00 PM
Saturday Nov. 14th at 8:00 AM
Sunday Nov. 15th at 8:00 AM
March for Jesus
SUNDAY, Nov. 15th, 2026 at 1:00 PM

Theme: EVANGELIZATION & DISCIPLESHIP

Guest Speaker

Rev. Fr. Celsus M. Auguiste

Rev. Fr. Celsus M. Auguiste is a diocesan priest of the Diocese of Roseau in the Commonwealth of Dominica. He was ordained on August 18, 1985, in his home diocese by Bishop Arnold Boghaert, C.Ss.R.

Fr. Celsus, as he is affectionately known, is a respected Catholic priest and evangelist. He currently serves in the Archdiocese of Miami as a theology teacher and chaplain at St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic High School.

He brings to his ministry a wealth of experience spanning more than four decades, having served his diocese in both pastoral and administrative capacities. His roles have included pastor, diocesan youth coordinator, episcopal vicar, and member of the Council of Priests. On a regional level he has also served as President and Secretary of the Council of Diocesan Clergy of the Province of the Archdiocese of Castries, St. Lucia.

As an evangelist, he has preached - and continues to preach missions, conferences, and retreats throughout the universal church. He served for over six years as Spiritual Director for Missionary Families for Christ (MFC), which covered the Americas, Caribbean and parts of Latin America.

An energetic and engaging preacher, Fr. Celsus is known for his distinctive style, marked by a strong emphasis on biblical foundation that illuminate and support Catholic teaching. A committed proponent of the truth of the faith and a steadfast defender of the faith against erroneous interpretations, he proclaims with clarity and conviction the unadulterated message handed down by Christ through the Apostles.

Guest Speaker

Fr. Anthony Abraham

Rev. Fr. Anthony Abraham was born in Arima, Trinidad, in 1972. As a child growing up, God was absent from his home and his life. At the age of 19, he had a conversion experience listening to Auntie Babsie preach. This experience led him back to the Catholic Church. He became a member of the Word of Life Prayer Community and began serving the homeless and the poor.

In his desire to give back to God the years the locust ate, Fr. Anthony successfully completed his studies at St. John Vianney Seminary and obtained his Bachelor of Arts degree in theology at the University of the West Indies. He has no greater joy than to see a soul capitulate to the living God.

At present, he serves in the Diocese of St. Thomas in the U.S. Virgin Islands. He is the pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Catholic Church on St. John. He also serves as Vicar for Clergy and Diocesan Liaison for Catholic Charismatic Renewal in the Diocese of St. Thomas. He is also a Chaplain in the U.S. Army.

Fr. Anthony is well known in the Caribbean church for his preaching and life stirring testimony. He has preached at Catholic conference and has conducted youth workshops. He has also been invited to preach at the Moravian and Methodist churches. He understands the importance of Ecumenism.

For Anthony's motto for life is "When God calls you, he enables you."